THE Commissaries of War have received Orders to buy up Corn, Hay, &c. for filling the Magazines on the Frontiers. 'Tis said the Troops of this Empire will shortly be augmented with 30,000 Men, and the Fleet with 60 new Gallies. A very great Fire broke out a few Days ago, by which most of the spacious Buildings, lately erected near the Physick Garden, were entirely reduced to Ashes.

The Smuglers, who took up their Residence in large Bodies in the Romagnia, and carried on all Manner of illicit Trade, are at length all drove out of that Province by the Detachments sent from hence, and those Troops are now actually on their March back again. A Courier is arrived here from Lisbon with an Account of the Death of Cardinal Almeyda, which makes a sixth Vacancy in the Sacred College.

Leghorn, April 13. We are informed by our last Advices from Corsica, that the Marquess de Grimaldi, the Republick's Commissary General in that Island, having received Information that the Inhabitants of Capo Corse were carrying on a secret Correspondence with the Malecontents, marched against them with a strong Detachment of Troops, and set Fire to the Habitations of those who did not pay the Contribution he laid them under for their Treachery. The same Advices add, that the Malecontents had assembled a Body of 7 or 8000 Men, with an Intent, as 'twas thought, to make themselves Masters of San Fiorenzo.

Dresden, April 15. The King intends to set out on Wednesday next for Elstwerda, in order to spend ten or twelve Days in Hunting; after which he proposes going to the Fair of Leipsick. His Majesty's Departure for Poland is fixed for the 17th of June; for which Purpose several Officers of the Houshold are to set forward next Wednesday, in order to make the necessary Preparations for the Reception of him and his Retinue.

Marseilles, April 16. The Masters of several Ships arrived here lately from the Coast of Africa say, that the Dey and Regency of Algiers were disposed to send a solemn Embassy to the Court of France, to make Satisfaction for the Insults committed by the Corsairs of that State against the Flag of his most Christian Majesty.

Vienna, April 17. Their Imperial Majesties have signified their Intention to remove to Laxembourg the Beginning of next Month, in order to spend some Weeks, and accordingly that Palace is ordered to be immediately prepared for their Reception. They write from Constantinople, that in the Night between the 10th and 11th Instant, a Fire broke out in the Armenian Quarter of that City, which burnt down near 600 Houses. The whole Loss, occasioned by this Fire, is reckoned to amount to about two Millions of Piastres.
